TYPE OF INCIDENT:

Assistance to Orange County Fire Authority

DATE AND TIME OF OCCURRENCE:

October 6, 2013, 10:06 a.m.

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Baker Incident: On Sunday, October 6, at 10:06 a.m., a brush fire broke out in Santiago Canyon in neighboring Orange County. At 12:23 p.m., we received a request for assistance from the Orange County Fire Authority. We deployed one dozer team strike team (consisting of two dozer teams and one battalion chief) to assist in the firefight. At this time, the agency is reporting 60 acres burned and 50 percent containment, with full containment expected on Wednesday. Approximately 270 firefighters are on scene battling this blaze; one structure has been damaged. No County Fire personnel have been injured, and there is currently no fire involvement in Los Angeles County. Our Department will receive cost recovery on this incident.
